Delta Leadership Forums

Why Should I Join A Leadership Forum?

Delta Leadership Forums provide a trusted space for executives to collaborate monthly as we learn and grow together. The forum serves a dual purpose of learning about business trends and leadership skills while making a practical application to your own growth and development. You will have an opportunity to reflect and converse about real-life experiences that you are currently navigating.

We are better together.

The Delta Leadership Forum provides an environment of trust and collaboration that allows executives to solve challenges together. Each forum functions as a peer advisory group, designed to meet the unique needs of its participants. These relationships will promote learning and discovery that leads to growth and change for each for each forum member.

We will share opportunities and challenges in order to gain perspective. You will gain a deeper understanding of who you are as a leader and how you can maximize your strengths to reach your business goals. Each member will ask questions to help you gain perspective and perhaps share practical advice on how they would navigate the issue.

Who Will Be In My Forum?

Each forum will have 8-12 participants representing diverse industries and roles. Participants must have a minimum of 15 years of business experience and serve in a key leadership role. Prior to the kick-off retreat, participants will complete an intake form to identify key development areas and desired outcomes.

Where And When Will We Meet?

Forums begin with a half-day kick-off retreat at Ankura Consulting on Wednesday, September 18th at 1:30. During the retreat, Janet Walls guides the participants in determining the discussion topics, structure, expectations, and key success factors. The retreat is followed by an individual 90-minute coaching session to establish your development areas of focus and six, 3-hour group coaching/peer learning sessions. The forum decides the time and location of monthly meetings but I'm proposing the 3rd Wednesday from 1:30pm – 4:30pm or 7:30am—10:30am. The success of this program is built on mutual accountability. Forum members should commit to attending each session and engaging in the process.

What Is The Investment?

The Delta Leadership Forum program fee is $3,500 per member and includes:

- Half-day Kick-off Retreat
- Six, 3-hour, group coaching/peer-learning sessions
- One, 90-minute individual coaching session to identify key areas of focus

What Is The Return On This Investment?

Each member shares the goals she'd like to achieve during the next year. These goals will be reviewed during each forum as we hold each other accountable and determine how the group can help you meet your goals. You will walk away from each forum session with a key takeaway and an actionable goal that will lead to measurable results.
